Conclusion

DEATH IS NOTHING AT ALL

by Canon Henry Scott Holland

Death is nothing at all...
I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect, without the ghost of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was, there is absolutely unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident?

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
just around the corner...
All is well.

A SERVICE TO CELEBRATE THE LIFE OF

held at

The North Harbour Chapel
of Dil's Funeral Services

on Friday 4 March 2016 at 10:30am

Celebrant | Peter Atkinson

William's family thank you for being here today,
and warmly invite you to join them for refreshments
in the Reception Lounge following the service.

I must go down to the seas again,
to the lonely sea and the sky,
And all I ask is a tall ship
and a star to steer her by,
And the wheel's kick and the wind's song
and the white sails shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea's face
and a grey dawn breaking.

I must go down to the seas again,
for the call of the running tide
is a wild call and a clear call
that cannot be denied;
And all I ask is a windy day
and the white cloud flying,
And the flung spray and the blown spume
and the seagulls crying.

I must go down to the seas again
to the vagrant gypsy life,
to the gull's way and the whale's way
where the wind's like a whetted knife;
And all I ask is a merry yarn
from a laughing fellow rover,
And a quiet sleep and sweet dream
when the long trick's over.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
Forever and ever.
Amen.
